The principal goal of this course is to develop an understanding of, and appreciation for, the achievements of the civilizations of the eastern Mediterranean during the period 500-146 BCE. We will focus primarily on Greece but will also examine how Greece interacted with its neighbors, especially Persia and Egypt.